

SALES POLICY & TERMS

Please read these terms before placing a deposit. Reserving an animal means you agree to all terms below.

DEPOSITS & HOLDS

A non-refundable deposit of 50% holds your rabbit, and that amount applies toward the total cost of the rabbit. Your deposit reserves one specific animal. It cannot be moved to a different rabbit. If you change your mind after placing a deposit, the deposit is forfeited.

We take great care, but sometimes things happen, for example if a young one passes away. In that case we will send a refund or apply the deposit amount toward another available kit, whichever you prefer.

To reserve, message us with your name, your phone number, and the rabbit you want. A signed copy of this policy is due at the time the deposit is placed.

PAYMENT

Deposits and final payments can be made through Venmo: @EmmaMMcpherson, Zelle: see QR code below, or Cash App: $EmmaMMcpherson. (Please note the "extra" M between Emma and McPherson is not a typo.) We also accept the remaining balance in cash at pickup.

If you pay by PayPal, choose Friends & Family. On Venmo, leave the "purchase" toggle off. Either way, if a payment comes through with fees attached, we'll send it back and you'll cover the difference.

Rabbits leaving on transport must be paid IN FULL a minimum of 48 hours before the transport pickup date.

RESERVATION ORDER

Available rabbits are posted first on our Facebook page and on our website, rhythmandbleu.co. We work through reservations in the order messages arrive, and a deposit with signed terms takes priority. So if you REALLY want that sweet baby and don't want someone else to get it, send that deposit and a signed copy of this form asap.

HEALTH

We never knowingly send a sick animal. You will go home with transition food so the switch to your home goes as smoothly as possible. We recommend you visit rhythmandbleu.co for tips on caring for your new rabbit. We guarantee the rabbit's health for 72 hours after pickup against any inherited issue we may have missed.

After that window, we cannot be held responsible for any loss.

RETURNS & REHOMING

If ever you need to re-home your rabbit, we will take them back. We are not okay with the thought of one of our babies in a shelter.

Please understand that a returned rabbit does not come with a refund. This policy is here to protect our animals, and we are glad to be that safety net whenever one is needed.

PICKUP & TRANSPORT

Pickups happen by appointment only.

Once your rabbit is paid for, we set a pickup day. If you cannot make the day we agreed on, a boarding fee of $25 per rabbit will apply, even if pickup is just one day late.

If you do not show up for pickup and we cannot reach you within 48 hours, the rabbit is considered forfeited and no refund is given. If you miss 2 pickup meetings in a row, your deposit and rabbit are considered forfeited.

We do understand that sometimes life just happens. If you have extenuating circumstances, message us. Some of the above policies may be relaxed at the seller's discretion.

Transport must be arranged and paid for by the buyer. As stated above, no rabbit will be sent on transport that has not been paid for in full.

PEDIGREE

A full pedigree comes with your rabbit at pickup, or tucked into the transition feed bag for transport. Do not lose this. We are not able to reissue copies to you. You are welcome to use your own barn name for the rabbit, though the pedigree itself cannot be altered.

I have read and agree to the terms above.
